

BIG CONTEST IN FULL SWING

CANDIDATES ALL CONFIDENT WITH BALLOTING NEAR

Head Of Republican Ticket May Be Named Today.

FREE FOR ALL FIGHT

Outcome Likely To Be Anybody's Victory Is Prediction.

Chicago, June 11.—The Republican national convention will begin to ballot today on the nomination of a candidate for president.

It is possible that the nomination of the ticket will be accomplished before nightfall, but if a deadlock should develop, the convention will adjourn until Saturday to enable the leaders to effect a compromise on a candidate capable of commanding a majority vote.

It is more evident than ever the contest will be a free-for-all fight and the outcome anybody's victory. Expectations of success by the managers of candidates are rife, but seasoned politicians, divesting themselves of professional bias for the purpose of coldly critical analysis, confessed it folly to attempt prognostication.

Senator Johnson predicted that the Republican candidate for president would be nominated today. He declared he would "start with a modest number of delegates" in the beginning of the meeting and that he had assurances of subsequent accessions. Asked if he was still confident of success, Senator Johnson said: "I am very confident; very confident."

It looks as if Wood will go into the fight much stronger than he was supposed to be and that this first clash of the opposing forces will prove a desperate struggle. There was abundant evidence of powerful influences being exerted in numerous delegations to round up the necessary 493 votes for Wood.

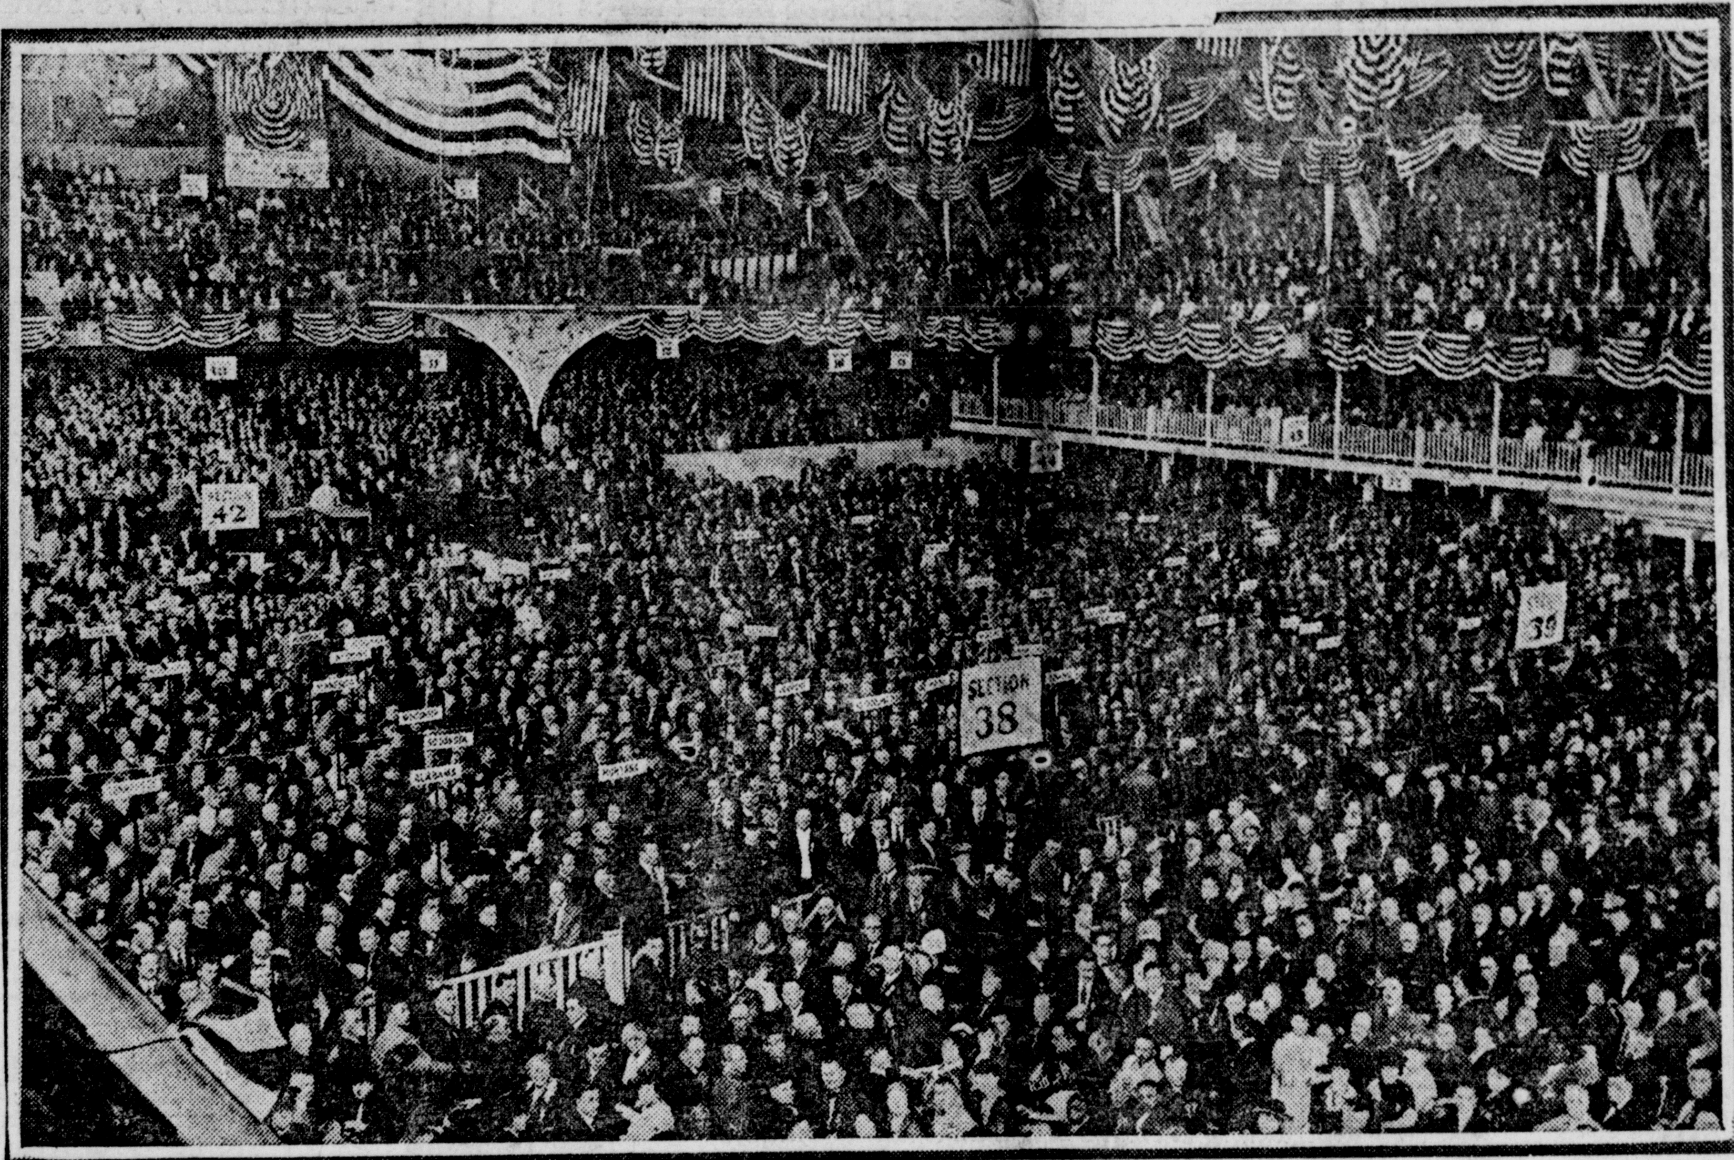

The anti-Wood forces, however, are supremely confident that Frank H. Hitchcock will be unable at any time to place General Wood within 150 votes of the nomination and that they can hold their lines intact until the Wood strength should begin to disintegrate.

Governor Lowden is the commanding figure in the field of the opposition to Wood and about him revolve all the plans for the elimination of the general, some of these plans contemplating the nomination of the Illinois governor and quite as many other plans contemplating his elimination also, if Wood can be disposed of.

Wood delegates in Indiana and several other states are scheduled to inaugurate the swing to Lowden and the Lowden managers figure that this movement will develop a strength of more than 350 votes for the governor, after which the desire of the delegates to get aboard the band wagon will do the rest.

John T. King, retiring national committeeman from Connecticut, said that friends of Governor Sproul are not antagonizing any other candidate, as they wanted to be in a position to make the best of their opportunity if a break came among the leading candidates for the presidential nomination.

CONVENTION GETS DOWN TO SERIOUS BUSINESS

Chicago, June 11.—The Republican national convention today got down to the real business of the convention—the nomination of a 1920 candidate.

A day of listening to the fervid oratory faced the 984 delegates and the thousands of visitors who flocked to the Coliseum at 9:30 a. m. for this momentous day of the session.

Whether a nomination could be had today seemed doubtful when the session got under way. At least a dozen men will be placed in nomination, barring unexpected eleventh hour withdrawals. The nominating speeches, seconding speeches and demonstrations will make the selection of a candidate a slow process.

It is hoped by some of the party leaders to get down to balloting late this afternoon or early evening, if a night session is decided upon. This, however, depends to a large degree upon the temper of the delegates. Hour after hour of fervid oratory and flag waving is tiring and the delegates may demand relief before the day is over.

There is a possibility of something ugly occurring on the convention floor today. Feeling between the "big three" camps is very intense.

During the night and early today charges were made by both Lowden and Wood supporters that the adherents of the other were "rounding up" negro delegates from the south, nearly all of whom are uneducated and unbound to any candidate. In some quarters there were hints of bringing the matter to the floor, but it will not happen if the smooth parliamentary workings of the party leaders can prevent it.

Nominating speeches today are supposed to be limited to ten minutes each but some of them, already known are so long that it will require twice the time to deliver them.

The first two seconding speeches will be limited to five minutes each and after that if anyone wants to second again he will have to do it in two minutes. Here is a limit to the amount of speechifying an audience can endure, even a convention audience. It is an ideal day for racing.

ATTORNEY UNDECIDED ON HIS CANDIDACY

Although he filed his declaration of candidacy for the Republican nomination for congressman in the Seventh district with J. M. Fletcher, chief of the board of elections Thursday night, Attorney Charles L. Darlington said Friday that he had not decided whether he would be a candidate or not.

Mr. Darlington declined to discuss the matter further.

Congressman S. D. Fess who filed his declaration in Clark county has so far no position for the nomination except that of Mr. Darlington should he make up his mind to run.

TRADING AGREEMENT ON WITH GOV. SPROUL

ORDER OF NOMINATIONS

Chicago, June 11.—Here is the order in which the names of the candidates for the Republican nomination for president, probably will be offered today:

General Leonard Wood (either Arkansas, Arizona or Alabama is expected to yield to Governor Henry J. Allen, of Kansas who will place General Wood in nomination.)

Senator Hiram Johnson (Charles S. Wheeler, of San Francisco, who will make the nominating speech.)

Governor Frank O. Lowden (Congressman W. A. Rodenburg of East St. Louis will make the nominating speech.)

Governor Calvin C. Coolidge (Speaker Frederick H. Gillett, of the house of representatives will make the nominating speech.)

Judge Jeter C. Pritchard (former Senator Marion C. Butler, of North Carolina, makes the nominating speech.)

Nicholas Murray Butler (Ogden L. Mills, Jr., of New York, will make the nominating speech. Woman, Helen Varick Boswell, will second the nomination.)

Senator Warren G. Harding (former Governor Frank B. Willis, of Ohio, makes the nominating speech.)

Governor William C. Sproul (Mayor G. Hampton Moore of Philadelphia makes the nominating speech.)

Senator Miles Poindexter (George H. Walker of Seattle, makes the nominating speech.)

Senator Howard Sutherland (Joseph Saunders of Bluefield, W. Va., makes the nominating speech.)

Others who may be placed in nomination: Herbert Hoover, Senator LaFollette, T. Coleman Dupont.

XENIA WORK HOUSE TO BE ABANDONED AS PENAL INSTITUTION BY THE CITY

Old John Prohibition has not only kicked the pins out from under his late lamented enemy, John Barleycorn, but has also successfully defeated the purpose of the Xenia workhouse.

According to City Manager Kenyon Riddle, Xenia's penal institution will soon be a thing of the past, and the building that has harbored many a prisoner in the days of his past will be demolished and from henceforth be destined to some peaceful domestic pursuit.

Lack of number of prisoners and the high cost of upkeep has speeded the downfall of the Work House, which will very soon pass out of existence entirely. There are now only five men in the Work House, most of whom will be discharged soon, as compared with an average of 64 men a day, which the institution harbored back in 1917. Lack of booze, which was the cause of the downfall of many a man who found his way into the works is given by officials as one of the principal causes for the lack of prisoners in now, and therefore the cause for closing the Work House.

Figures show that an average of 64 prisoners a day were harbored in the Work House and that in 1918 there was an average of 40 prisoners a day in the works. The first part of 1919 this average held up but with federal prohibition, the amount has decreased to 27 in the later part of 1919 and to an average of ten for this year.

As soon as possible a complete survey will be made of the city property at the Work House and of that owned jointly by the city and the county. The city dump on the property has been abandoned and as soon as excavation dirt can be thrown in over the debris the entire property will be put on the market. The abandonment of the place as a Work House means much to the beauty of Dayton avenue as a residential St.

To Prepare Dry Argument.

Columbus, June 11.—Governor Cox named L. J. Taber, Barnesville; Percy Tettlow, Washingtonville, and J. A. White of Columbus as a statutory committee to prepare the arguments in favor of the adoption of the Crabbe prohibition enforcement bill, passed by the general assembly in February, and which is to be submitted to a referendum vote this fall.

Coliseum, Chicago, June 11.—Governor Sproul withdrew from the convention hall, where he has been sitting at the head of the Pennsylvania delegation, soon after he nominating speeches were begun. He returned to his headquarters at the Blackstone hotel and remained there while the oratorical fireworks were exploding and the balloting was on in the convention hall.

"We will stick to Sproul to the finish" was the slogan of the 75 Pennsylvania delegates. It was made known that Senator Calder of New York was handling a trading agreement between the Pennsylvania delegates and some 30 or more of the 88 New York delegates. It was said Calder was pledged to swing all the New York support to Sproul if he seemed to have a good chance of grabbing the nomination.

There was a renewal of Knox talk despite Senator Penrose's eleventh hour endorsement of Sproul "with reservations" but it was Sproul the Pennsylvania delegation was rooting hard for when they reached the convention.

CANDIDATES STATE VIEWS ON PLATFORM AS IT NOW STANDS

Chicago, June 11.—Universal approbation was given the Republican party platform today by various presidential candidates—one of whom will be asked to stand solidly on it in the 1920 campaign.

Comments were as follows: Senator Warren G. Harding—It is a good platform. The commendation of the senate for its stand on the treaty is particularly gratifying to me.

Major General Leonard Wood—Every Republican candidate can wholeheartedly accept the provisions of the 1920 platform. It is a sound, wholesome appeal to the American people.

Governor Wm. C. Sproul, of Pennsylvania—The platform suits me. It is in accord with Republican sentiment, wholesome appeal to the American and constructive.

Nicholas Murray Butler of New York—The fullest strength of the Republican party can be mustered in support of this document.

Senator Miles Poindexter of Washington—I approve of the league plank heartily. Republicans always have and Republicans always will stand against any surrender of the rights and sovereign powers of the nation such as is proposed by the Wilson League of Nations.

NOMINATIONS BEGIN; WILD ENTHUSIASM GREETS EACH SPEAKER

Wood, Lowden and Johnson Nominated On Convention Floor—Other Nominations Follow in Quick Succession Following Demonstrations.

PANDEMONIUM BREAKS LOOSE IN GALLERIES

Convention Begins Session at 9:38—Wood Supporters Predict Victory On Fourth Ballot—Kansas and Delaware Lead Noise for Wood.

Coliseum, June 11.—10:04 a. m.—Governor Henry J. Allen of Kansas gains recognition from the chair and nominates Gen. Wood in a brilliant speech.

Allen finished speaking at 10:24 a. m. Demonstration started for Wood at 10:24 a. m. Thousands of feathers let loose from roof flood convention.

Coliseum, June 11.—11:24 a. m.—Representative William A. Rodenburg, of Illinois, arises and nominates Governor Frank O. Lowden, Illinois favorite son.

Coliseum, June 11.—12:36—Charles Wheeler, of San Francisco, is recognized by the chair and nominates Senator Hiram Johnson, of California amid cheers.

The convention is extremely hot and most of the day will go to nominating speeches, but the result may be known tonight.

Coliseum, Chicago, June 11.—10:45 a. m.—Following Governor Henry Allen's presentation of the name of General Leonard Wood as 1920 standard bearer the Republican national convention is the scene of a wild demonstration. When Wood's name was uttered about 300 men stood up. Chairman Lodge says that no man knows who will win this great race.

The Kansas delegation is leading a march through the aisles.

PREDICT WOOD ON 4TH BALLOT

Wood circulators on the floor were predicting a victory for the General on the fourth ballot.

"We will have over 300 on the first, steadily increasing on the second and third and over we go on the fourth," was their confident forecast. The Lowden people were equally confident, but were making no predictions on figure or ballots.

Party leaders and campaign managers were confident there will be no deadlock. A majority of the delegates are unpledged and independent and longing to climb aboard any band wagon that seems certain to be going over. All they want is to ride a winner, who ever he may be.

California was one of the notable exceptions to this for the Golden Staters declared they were "last ditchers."

It was 9:58 when Lodge finally rapped for order and called the convention to order. He introduced the Rev. Johnstons Myers of Chicago who asked that the God of Lincoln and of Roosevelt guide the convention in selection of a candidate.

A beautiful tribute was paid the memory of the late Theodore Roosevelt at the start of the session.

A standing vote was taken in honor of the memory of Theodore Roosevelt. Chairman Lodge then announced that the next order of business was the placing in nomination of candidates before the convention.

The secretary called the roll of states. Arizona passed. Alabama yielded to Kansas. There were loud cheers.

"Arizona has yielded to Kansas, has Kansas a nominee to present? inquired Senator Lodge.

ALLEN NOMINATES WOOD

Governor Henry Allen of Kansas arose and was recognized by the chairman. Loudly cheered the Kansas governor took the platform and began his speech, placing the name of Leonard Wood in nomination.

The delegates for the most part listened attentively but cheered little. Perspiration rolled down the face of Governor Allen, as he pounded "Leonard Wood" at them. Huge beads stood on his bald head and his face was red from exertion.

Governor Allen finished at 10:32 a. m.

Immediately the enthusiasm so markedly missing during his speech, became manifest from the rafters far above the crowd was released thousands of brightly-colored feathers which floated down snow flake like on the heads of the delegates.

It was one of the most beautiful convention features ever seen. The sunlight caught on the scarlet and green of the softly falling storm, making them shimmer bits of radiance.

The demonstration for General Wood was led largely by the Kansas and Delaware delegates. In the center of the convention the Pennsylvania and New York delegates sat quietly.

The demonstration was carried on most strenuously from the galleries and Wood supporters ran up and down the aisles in the midst of the delegates, shouting "whoop it up."

Banners bearing "its Wood." "Lets go," were waved aloft before the cheering delegates.

South Dakota, Arizona and some of the Ohio delegates were on their feet on the left of the hall. Wood delegates in the New Jersey seats waxed enthusiastic to the discomfort of the Lowden, Illinois delegates who were seated next to New Jersey.

In the Kansas delegation there was a spirited show of enthusiasm by gray haired delegates waving Wood banners.

At the end of the 36 minutes of demonstration Lodge called upon the delegates to stop the demonstration and invited any delegate to make a motion that the galleries be cleared.

"We must have order in the galleries. I will entertain a motion to clear the galleries," Senator Lodge said. This threat from the chairman brought a speedy end to the Wood demonstration.

Hisses came from some parts of the house inducing more cries and confusion. Lodge resumed his rapping and at 11:10 some semblance of order was obtained.

"Gentlemen come to order," but his voice did not carry far.

"Next is the second speeches," said Lodge.

"Each candidate is entitled to two seconding speeches, each limited to five minutes."

He then introduced Frank Knox of New Hampshire.

Knox said:

"Wood comes before you as a citizen of the United States. His feet are on the ground. May I speak as a private in the regiment of Gen. Wood, as a graduate of a Plattsburg camp. May I speak for the four and a half million soldiers who see in Wood the example of the citizen soldier of the United States."

Senator Lodge then escorted to the platform Mrs. Corrine Douglas Robinson, sister of "T. R." to make the seconding speech. Loud cheers greeted her.

"The roll of states will continue," said Lodge.

"Arkansas," called the clerk.

"Arkansas yields to Illinois."

Congressman Rodenburg, Illinois, was introduced and proceeded to place the name of Governor Lowden before the convention.

BIG BANKERS ARE NOT PLEASED WITH ACTION ON LEAGUE

Chicago, June 11.—While Senators Johnson and Borah claim credit for the platform declarations, and have substantial grounds for their claim, the real author of the plank on which all factions in the committee finally agreed is Former Secretary of State Elihu Root of New York.

Root wrote the plank weeks before he sailed for Europe. There is said to be but little change in the plank as he wrote it, save that he wanted a foreign policy adopted as approved by Washington, Monroe, Lincoln, McKinley and approved by the Republican party.

Big bankers are not satisfied with the action of the Republican platform committee in defeating approval of the league of nations. They say it means an effort to put this country in a position of isolation. They claim this will do immeasurable harm to the business interests of the United States, pointing out that business is now being done and, because of war conditions, must continue to be done on a world basis, not on a basis of one country alone.

At the end of the 36 minutes of demonstration Lodge called upon the delegates to stop the demonstration and invited any delegate to make a motion that the galleries be cleared.

"We must have order in the galleries. I will entertain a motion to clear the galleries," Senator Lodge said. This threat from the chairman brought a speedy end to the Wood demonstration.

Hisses came from some parts of the house inducing more cries and confusion. Lodge resumed his rapping and at 11:10 some semblance of order was obtained.

Gentlemen come to order," but his voice did not carry far.

"Next is the second speeches," said Lodge.

"Each candidate is entitled to two seconding speeches, each limited to five minutes."

He then introduced Frank Knox of New Hampshire.

Knox said:

"Wood comes before you as a citizen of the United States. His feet are on the ground. May I speak as a private in the regiment of Gen. Wood, as a graduate of a Plattsburg camp. May I speak for the four and a half million soldiers who see in Wood the example of the citizen soldier of the United States."

Senator Lodge then escorted to the platform Mrs. Corrine Douglas Robinson, sister of "T. R." to make the seconding speech. Loud cheers greeted her.

"The roll of states will continue," said Lodge.

"Arkansas," called the clerk.

"Arkansas yields to Illinois."

Congressman Rodenburg, Illinois, was introduced and proceeded to place the name of Governor Lowden before the convention.

When Rodenburg finished a demonstration started. A party girl borne on the shoulders of Lowden supporters and waving Lowden banners was carried through the cheering mob. Convention old timers, after watching the Lowden demonstration and calculating the line of states for and not for him, declared that Wood would have the largest number of votes of all candidates on the first ballot. A march was begun by Lowden supporters around the hall. Kentucky joined it as did Arkansas. Almost solidly, small groups from other delegations were recruited on the march. In the midst of the demonstration the brilliant lights used for movie purposes were suddenly thrown onto the parading aisles, and it was filmed. During the wild Lowden demonstration in which the delegates milled around the aisles bearing Lowden pictures and banners, there were cool conferences in the rear of the Coliseum among Senators Smoot, Borah and other leaders. There was an indication that some trading was going on. No one of the principals would talk to reporters. At 12:18 Ex-Senator Albert J. Beveridge appeared on the platform to act for permanent Chairman Lodge. He rapped with his gavel. The great Lowden demonstration began to wane. It had run forty minutes, a few minutes longer than the Wood demonstration. Beveridge continued rapping with his gavel at intervals as the noise subsided and delegates found their seats. To one of the Lowden lieutenants in the procession, Beveridge said: "Tell them to stop it. We want to go on." Finally at 12:20 comparative quiet was restored. A group of enthusiastic Lowden supporters far up in the gallery attempted to start it off again but Beveridge promptly squelched them by merely pointing his finger and shaking his head at them. Charles E. Pickett, of Iowa, was recognized to second the nomination of Governor Lowden.

URGE EX-SOLDIERS TO TAKE INSURANCE

Members of the American Legion and all ex-soldiers and sailors were urged to reinstate their War Risk Insurance before July 1, positively the last day that reinstatement can be made at the regular meeting of Joseph P. Foody Post, No. 95, American Legion, held at the Chamber of Commerce Thursday evening. Talks explaining the War Risk Insurance clause were given by War Risk Officer Jacob Culp and by Attorney C. L. Darlington and a notice advising ex-service men that this will be the last opportunity to reinstate their insurance will be posted immediately on the bulletin board in the entrance way to the Chamber of Commerce. Men wishing to reinstate should see War Risk Officer Jacob Culp at once.

MORTORAIDS

To prevent corroded terminals on a storage battery, slip the pieces of rubber tubing over the wires down close to the battery and seal the ends to the battery with melted paraffine. Gritty grease should be carefully wiped off the grease gun spout before inserting it in the differential or transmission cases. Usually rapid wear is often due to grit in the grease. In using oxygen to remove carbon from the cylinders there are certain points to be remembered that may be read with interest. When using the oxygen the piston should be at the extreme top of the cylinder as the intense heat tends to roughen the cylinder walls. The flame should not be allowed to strike the thread of the spark plug hole and the water system should be kept full during the operation.

HEATED DISCUSSION OVER WATER LINES MARKS MEETING

A heated argument marked the introduction of the question of whether the city water works department should build service lines from the main to the curb, or whether this cost should be defrayed by the consumer at the meeting of the City Commission held Thursday evening.

The question was the cause of considerable discussion that took up a great part of the regular meeting commissioners being divided on the question. Under private ownership there was a period when he consumer was required to pay the costs of service lines, but for the last ten years the Company was required to build those lines. Even when the Company installed the lines, the consumer paid for them and the cost of laying them was paid out of the income of the sale of the water.

According to the present situation the water bonds in the sum of $260,000 were sold for the purpose of purchasing the plant, and an additional $65,000 for the purpose of developing a new water supply. All of the $260,000 was used for the purchase of the plant and none of the $65,000 can be spent for any other purpose than the development of the new supply.

Because of this, no working capital is provided for and the only way the city could build and pay for service lines would be to issue bonds and sell the notes to create a fund for such capital investments. However in view of the fact that the profits of the department are expected to be considerable with the new equipment installed the department proposes that property owners advance the money for building their own service lines and installing meters. Then when the profits of the company are sufficient to insure some money in hand these consumers may be reimbursed or he rates can then be reduced.

PROGRESS MADE BY FESTIVL COMMITTEE

Jacob Culp who is chairman of the entertainment committee which is putting on the Soldiers' and Sailors' June Festival at the Rink during the week of June 25 to July 3, explained the progress already made by the various committees in charge. At the American Legion meeting Thursday evening, The big bill board has been erected in the Court House lawn and is being painted now. The names of twelve contributors to the Festival are already in and ready to be put upon the board as soon as it is completed although the solicitors have only commenced their work. The use of a big searchlight and all the power necessary to operate it has been donated by the Dayton Power & Light Company through the kindness of E. H. Heathman, manager of the Xenia branch, and has been installed on a pole, where it lights up the board at night.

Every indication for a successful Festival is apparent.

THE GENIUS WHO INVITES SOME FRIENDS OVER TO TRY HIS "HOME BREW" has carried for years, was lost from his vest pocket, when he was injured when his automobile turned over on the Jamestown pike about three miles from Xenia last Sunday.

Mr. Hilliard's clothes were torn in pieces in the accident and the watch slipped from his pockets. Whether it was picked up by a passing motorist and not returned to the rightful owner or whether it is lost in the grass near the scene is not known. All five victims of the accident are reported as recovering rapidly from their injuries and the most seriously injured are now able to sit up.

HEATED DISCUSSION OVER WATER LINES MARKS MEETING

A heated argument marked the introduction of the question of whether the city water works department should build service lines from the main to the curb, or whether this cost should be defrayed by the consumer at the meeting of the City Commission held Thursday evening.

The question was the cause of considerable discussion that took up a great part of the regular meetings commissioners being divided on the question. Under private ownership there was a period when the consumer was required to pay the costs of service lines, but for the last ten years the company was required to build those lines. Even when the company installed the lines, the consumer paid for them and the cost of laying them was paid out of the income of the sale of the water.

According to the present situation the water bonds in the sum of $260,000 were sold for the purpose of purchasing the plant, and an additional $65,000 for the purpose of developing a new water supply. All of the $260,000 was used for the purchase of the plant and none of the $65,000 can be spent for any other purpose than the development of the new supply.

Because of this, no working capital is provided for and the only way the city could build and pay for service lines would be to sue bonds and sell the notes to create a fund for such capital investments. However in view of the fact that the profits of the department are expected to be considerable with the new equipment installed the department proposes that property owners advance the money for building their own service lines and installing meters. Then when the profits of the company are sufficient to insure some money in hand these consumers may be reimbursed or he rates can then be reduced.

PROGRESS MADE BY FESTIVAL COMMITTEE

Jacob Culp who is chairman of the entertainment committee which is putting on the Soldiers' and Sailors' June Festival at the Rink during the week of June 28 to July 3, explained the progress already made by the various committees in charge. At the American Legion meeting Thursday evening, the big bill board has been erected in the Court House lawn and is being painted now. The names of twelve contributors to the festival are already in and ready to be put upon the board as soon as it is completed although the solicitors have only commenced their work. The use of a big searchlight and all the power necessary to operate it has been donated by the Dayton Power & Light Company through the kindness of E. H. Heathman, manager of the Xenia branch, and has been installed on a pole, where it lights up the board at night.

Every indication for a successful festival is apparent.

DINNER STORIES

A Chinese boy had just come to America.

"This country must seem very strange to you, Lo," said an American.

"Yes, very strange, honorable sir," replied Lo.

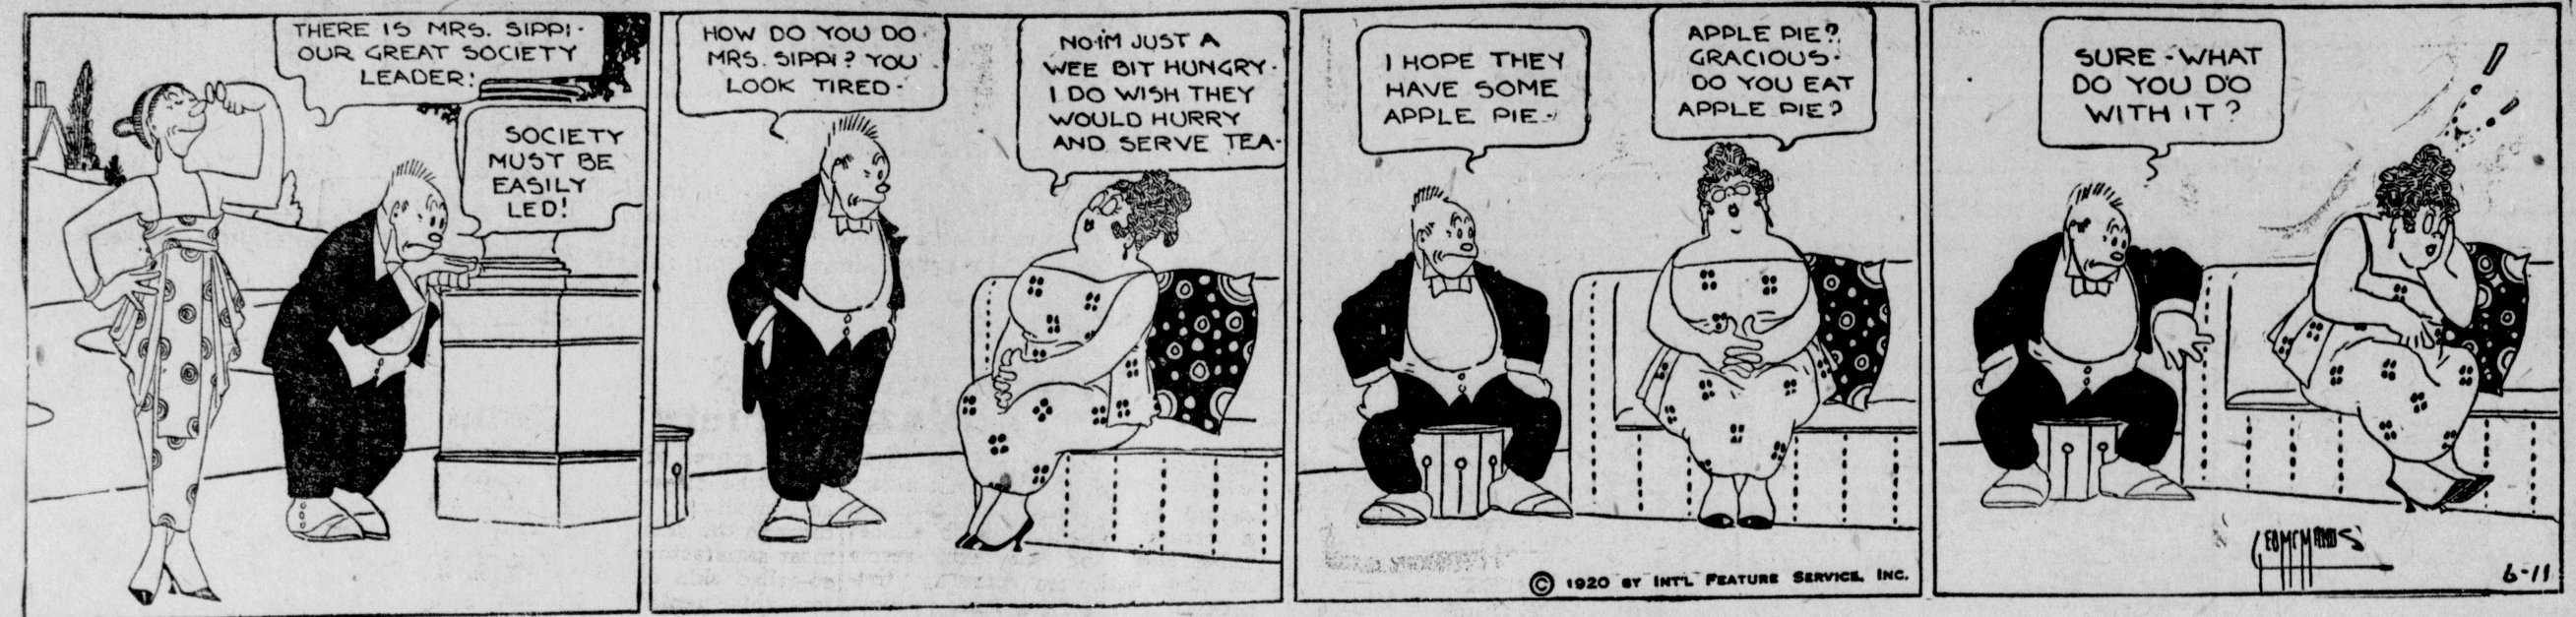

"And what do you think is the queerest thing about us?" asked the American. For a moment Lo struggled with his native politeness. Then he replied, with an amused laugh, "Your funny round eyes!"

The short-haired women and long-haired men in Nodaway county, Mo., have taken up the Demon Tobacco as the next victim of prohibition. One of the sisters approached Elder Johnson, a pillar of the church, and asked his support in the fight against tobacco.

And this was Elder Johnson's reply, as printed in the Nodaway County Democrat-Forum:

"A man can smoke and still be a good Christian. Universal smoking would do more toward bringing about universal brotherhood of man and the Fatherhood of God era on earth than all the spasms of short-haired women and long-haired men reformers in the world. Do I believe in smoking? Most assuredly! Let us pray!"

COMMISSIONERS FAIL TO REACH DECISION ON CITY ASSISTANCE

City Solicitor Finney reported to the commission meeting Thursday night the results of the conference with the county commissioners relative to assistance the county board has been asked to render the city in the pavement of West Second Street.

The county commissioners, it seems have made no decision as yet and a joint meeting of the city and county commissioners has been arranged for Monday afternoon at three o'clock. The city hopes to obtain some financial relief from the county for the payment of that portion of the paving costs on West Second street that he property will not bear. The city engineers will present an estimate of the amount of money required to carry on the work.

It will be remembered that the city voted for a two mill road levy which raises $22,000 a year from Xenia alone for five years or a total of $110,000 for the purpose of building rural roads. Each year of this levy for five years will take as much money out of Xenia as the total amount of the city's share of the street improvement work being done

Spanish Rice—One cup of cooked rice, three dices of bacon, one small onion, one cup of cooked tomatoes. Dice the onion and the bacon and fry together. Stir in the rice and the tomatoes. Salt to taste, add a dash of cayenne pepper and serve piping hot. This is a very substantial and economical dish, besides being very appetizing.

Pare, core and chop up the apples; add the marshmallows halved and the nut meats; serve on lettuce leaves with mayonnaise.

Sweet Cakes—One cup of chopped dates, one cup of granulated sugar, one rounding teaspoon of baking powder, three eggs, one and one-half cups of flour.

Mix well the dates, nut meats and sugar; add a sprinkle of salt and the baking powder; break the eggs into a bowl and stir lightly, just enough to break the yolks; bake in a square pan; cut into narrow strips a finger's length; roll in powdered sugar.

Creamed Chicken and Noodles—Prepare the noodles as follows: Place in a mixing bowl one-half teaspoon salt, one-quarter teaspoon pepper, one tablespoon grated onion, three tablespoons of parsley, three tablespoons of water, one egg. Beat with a fork to mix and then add sufficient flour to make a stiff dough. Knead until smooth and elastic, then cover and let stand for five minutes. Now roll on a pastry board until as thin as paper and roll as for jelly roll. Cut with sharp knife into strings the size of a shoe lace. Spread on the pastry board and allow to dry for twenty minutes.

While the noodles are drying pick the meat from the neck and carcass of the chicken, chop the giblets and skin fine. Now prepare two cups of thick cream and season with one teaspoon of salt, one-half teaspoon of paprika, one small onion, grated, one green pepper, chopped fine, one-quarter cup of finely chopped parsley. Add the minced chicken and simmer slowly while cooking the noodles.

Place one quart of boiling water in a saucepan, bring to a boil and add the noodles. Cover for twelve minutes, drain and then turn on a hot platter and cover with the creamed chicken.

"JUST A GIRL"

BY JANE PHELPS

ZENA ELUDES HER FRIENDS
shared with another girl just as soon as I could. I quietly packed up every thing I had, laid my clothes ready, then tried to get a little sleep. But the sight of Tony Deland had brought the old life back so strongly also the risk I ran in remaining in New York that I never closed my eyes but lay planning what I should do and say in the morning or thinking of the days when I had been one of just such a bevy of girls as I had that night waited upon My pillow was wet with tears when I rose and commenced to dress.

I was about to do a desperate thing. I knew Mrs. Rush well enough by this time to be sure she would not pay me if I left before my month was up. I also knew that Tony Deland would seek to see me again at once. He would probably tell Jack Pryor also.

In all the three weeks I had been in the house I never had spoken to Mr. Rush save to reply to his good morning greeting. He always breakfasted alone. I waited until I heard the butler go into the kitchen then went Mr. Rush.

"Did Mrs. Rush tell you of last night?" I asked after responding to his pleasant greeting and asking if I might speak with him.

"That one of my daughter's guests seemed to know you? Yes."

"I am leaving this morning and I wish to go without making any explanations. I have been here three weeks" I waited.

"How much were you to be paid?" He was looking keenly at me.

"Fifty dollars a month."

He took out his wallet and gave me five $10 bills.

"You have earned it," he said when I told him it was too much. "It has been kind of you to help out as you have. I am not blind, you see."

I thanked him and hurried from the room. I got a cab and the driver carried my trunk downstairs I dared not leave it to be sent for. I wanted to disappear.

The cook was very voluble in her sorrow at my going. Someway it comforted me. My trunk was in the cab. After telling the cabman to wait I went upstairs to Mrs. Rush.

"I am going, Mrs. Rush," I said quietly.

"Your month isn't up! I'll not pay you a cent if you leave me like this. I am very sorry but it is necessary." I turned to leave the room but Aliene coming in blocked my way.

"Where are you going so early, Zena? I want you to brush my hair. I have a headache."

"I'm sorry, but I am leaving."

Once again I started toward the stairs this time to hear waited after me:

"Didn't I tell you there was something mysterious about her? Next time you'll believe me when I say such things instead of laughing at me."

I smiled to myself. I was mysterious to her.

I had driven directly to the New York Central Station and bought a ticket for Chicago. Then as I had a couple of hours to spare I drew down my veil, a thick and stained out to fill a lunch box for my trip. I knew I must keep up my strength. So I scurried about the neighborhood for a delicatessen shop, and had some sandwiches fruit and cheese packed up for me. Then I returned to the station to wait until my train was made up.

I did not dare sit in the woman's waiting room, so I took a chair in the rest room. It was almost the first time in three weeks that I had sat down to rest in the daytime. I had deliberated over a berth to Chicago but decided I dare not risk using the money. I would sit in the day coach and catch what rest I might.

To me Chicago was as unknown as was Europe. But because there was no one there whom I knew or who knew me I was venturing gladly. My encounter with Tony Deland had shown me how unwise it was to remain where I would be in danger of embarrassing situations almost constantly.

After I was in some distance out of New York I thought for the first time that I had not told Mrs. Rush her husband had paid me. I hoped she wouldn't be angry with him.

I wondered also if any other servant girl had ever left her place in quite the same way.

The banquet was prepared by the women of St. Brigid's church, and music was furnished during the meal by Misses Catherine McCurran and Regina Hustmyer at the piano. H. A. Higgins, Past Grand Knight of the local Council, acted as Toastmaster following the banquet, and there were a number of informal speeches.

Among those who responded to toasts were District Deputy Warde, Attorney Arthur Leen, Dr. Ryan, of St. Elizabeth Hospital, and Mr. Hurling of Dayton. Rev. Father Albert Burke of St. Brigid's Church, and Rev. Father Depponbrock, of St. Paul's, Yellow Springs and Martin Keibie, of Xenia Council.

The affair was one of the most enjoyable ever held by Xenia Council, and roseeate predictions for the future of the Council here, were contained in the after dinner speeches.

DINNER STORIES

A Chinese boy had just come to America.

"This country must seem very strange to you, Lo," said an American.

"Yes, very strange, honorable sir," replied Lo.

"And what do you think is the queerest thing about us?" asked the American. For a moment Lo struggled with his native politeness. Then he replied, with an amused laugh, "Your funny round eyes!"

The short-haired women and long-haired men in Nodaway county, Mo., have taken up the Demon Tobacco as the next victim of prohibition. One of the sisters approached Elder Johnson, a pillar of the church, and asked his support in the fight against tobacco.

And this was Elder Johnson's reply, as printed in the Nodaway County Democrat-Forum:

"A man can smoke and still be a good Christian. Universal smoking would do more toward bringing about universal brotherhood of man and the Fatherhood of God era on earth than all the spasms of short-haired women and long-haired men reformers in the world. Do I believe in smoking? Most assuredly! Let us pray!"

"BRINGING UP FATHER"

There is Mrs. Sippi, our great society leader!

How do you do, Mrs. Sippi? You look tired.

No! I'm just a wee bit hungry. I do wish they would hurry and serve tea.

I hope they have some apple pie.

Apple pie? Gracious! Do you eat apple pie?

Sure! What do you do with it?

COMMISSIONERS FAIL TO REACH DECISION ON CITY ASSISTANCE

City Solicitor Finney reported to the commission meeting Thursday night the results of the conference with the county commissioners relative to assistance the county board has been asked to render the city in the pavement of West Second Street. The county commissioners, it seems have made no decision as yet and a joint meeting of the city and county commissioners has been arranged for Monday afternoon at three o'clock. The city hopes to obtain some financial relief from the county for the payment of that portion of the paving costs on West Second street that he property will not bear. The city engineers will present an estimate of the amount of money required to carry on the work.

It will be remembered that the city voted for a two mill road levy which raises $22,000 a year from Xenia alone for five years or a total of $110,000 for the purpose of building rural roads. Each year of this levy for five years will take as much money out of Xenia as the total amount of the city's share of the street improvement work being done

Insist on Genuine Ford Parts

Imitation "Ford" parts are being sold by many mail-order houses, down-town stores and garages to unsuspecting Ford owners as "Ford" parts. But they are not genuine Ford parts made by the Ford Motor Company. They are made by concerns who have no connection whatsoever with the Ford Motor Company. These imitation parts are not even made from the same grade of steel, or under the same formulas used by the Ford Company. They are counterfeit parts. Tests have shown them to break when the genuine Ford parts didn't even bend, and they generally are from thirty-five to one hundred per cent lower in quality.

The Authorized Ford Dealer is your protection. As such, we handle nothing but the Genuine Ford parts. They are made from the famous Ford Vanadium Steel and each part—according to its use—is heat-treated in the way that will give it the longest wearing qualities. Every part is the same as its duplicate in your Ford car or Ford truck.

Our stock of parts is complete. And our Ford garage and Ford mechanics are at your service at all times. Drive in when replacements or repairs for your Ford car may be necessary. Save your car and also your money.

shared with another girl just as soon as I could. I quietly packed up every thing I had, laid my clothes ready, then tried to get a little sleep. But the sight of Tony Deland had brought the old life back so strongly also the risk I ran in remaining in New York that I never closed my eyes but lay planning what I should do and say in the morning or thinking of the days when I had been one of just such a bevy of girls as I had that night waited upon My pillow was wet with tears when I rose and commenced to dress.

I was about to do a desperate thing. I knew Mrs. Rush well enough by this time to be sure she would not pay me if I left before my month was up. I also knew that Tony Deland would seek to see me again at once. He would probably tell Jack Pryor also.

In all the three weeks I had been in the house I never had spoken to Mr. Rush as to reply to his good morning greeting. He always breakfasted alone. I waited until I heard the butler go into the kitchen then went Mr. Rush.

"Did Mrs. Rush tell you of last night?" I asked after responding to his pleasant greeting and asking if I might speak with him.

"That one of my daughter's guests seemed to know you? Yes."

"I am leaving this morning and I wish to go without making any explanations. I have been here three

BETTING ABSENT AT CONVENTION

Chicago, June 11.—Betting on who the convention will name as its choice for president was as hard to find this morning as the tradition al hens teeth.

The good old fashioned rolls of bank notes which used to drift around a convention were being kept carefully out of sight.

One prominent member of the Pennsylvania delegation who would rather bet than eat offered 5 to 3 on Sprout but he admitted he was taking a long chance.

Real betting on any of the prospective candidates was not in sight.

I had driven directly to the New York Central Station and bought a ticket for Chicago. Then as I had a couple of hours to spare I drew down my veil, a thick and stout out to fill a lunch box for my trip. I knew I must keep up my strength. So I scurried about the neighborhood for a delicatessen shop, and had some sandwiches fruit and cheese packed up for me. Then I returned to the station to wait until my train was made up.

I did not dare sit in the womans waiting room, so I took a chair in the rest room. It was almost the first time in three weeks that I had sat down to rest in the daytime. I had deliberated over a berth to Chicago but decided I dare not risk using the money. I would sit in the day coach and catch what rest I might.

To me Chicago was as unknown as was Europe. But because there was no one there whom I knew or who knew me I was venturing gladly. My encounter with Tony Deland had shown me how unwise it was to remain where I would be in danger of embarrassing situations almost constantly.

After I was in some distance out of New York I thought for the first time that I had not told Mrs. Rush her husband had paid me. I hoped she wouldn't be angry with him.

I wondered also if any other servant girl had ever left her place in quite the same way.

RELATIONSHIP OF C. OF C. TO WORLD'S WORK POITED OUT

Touching on the great ideals that underlie the work of the Chamber of Commerce and pointing out their application as a direct factor in the betterment of the world Dan E. Weigle of the American City Bureau made a stirring appeal for cooperation in the local work before a perspiring audience of 50 at the Chamber of Commerce banquet Thursday evening.

"The Chamber of Commerce," he said, "is the factor that keeps a city prepared so that when the time comes for greater development the city is ready. No manufacturer is willing to move into a city that is unprepared, and the city that reaches the stage when it is not pulling together but is willing to rest on its past reputation I tremble for. This situation is troubling Dayton today.

In commenting upon the work being done in Xenia, Mr. Weigle said that he was proud of the way in which results were being accomplished here. "Last August," he said, "no one of the 2500 cities with Chamber of Commerce organizations knew of Xenia. Today through the medium of the Chamber's organ they all know of Xenia and its work."

Swinging into the subject of his address "The Spiritual Side of American Business" the speaker pointed out that America is not great because of her wealth but because of the spirit of American business, which is making this country transcendent among the other nations of the world.

"This side of American business is developing," said Mr. Weigle "all over the world we are forming Chambers of Commerce founded on a spiritual conference of intangible principles. This means that ultimately America will help the other nations of the world to a sound financial basis to the end that profitable trade relations may be established."

"Just as ships won the great war, so there are certain necessary 'ships' of intangible principles that are necessary if the great work of the world is to go on, and the quicker these 'ships' are recognized, the sooner the world will regain normal footing. Three of these are partnership, friendship and leadership. The first has for its ultimate end the elimination of all poverty. The second is necessary for the development and progress of the community and the third which comprises about 2 per cent of the population is the factor without which no community would prosper."

These 'ships' must be developed and in their development we will come nearer the ideal. Sometimes the people will lose faith but the easiest thing in the world to do is just to quit and we must remember that we are laying the foundation of future growth and prosperity. As we enjoy the advantages of the present era let us not forget that they were given to us as a legacy and that we are here to make the world a little better for the next generation.

In commenting on the work locally the speaker said that he did not believe the wall of the calamity howler that the organization would last only a year. There is always a lot of excess baggage that must be carried along he said, and that detriment should not be permitted to deter the work of the organization. Harry A. Higgins acted as toastmaster and following the main address called upon several members of the Chamber to express their views on the work. Jacob Kany responded and was followed by Harry Sparks local manager of the Robbins and Myers Factory who spoke briefly on the progress of the plant here. Walter L. Dean in a brief talk said that it was not the policy of the plant to take help from the other factories here but wanted new help. C. A. Weaver, president of the Chamber of Commerce concluded the meeting.

WITHOUT AN EQUAL STATES INSPECTOR

Tanlac Built Him Up So Wonderfully His Friends Are Now Taking It.

"Although I have only taken four bottles of Tanlac, it has restored me to perfect health, and I have gained ten pounds in weight," said Floyd E. Whitman, 790 Sawyer St., Akron, Ohio, inspector of the steam heating system for the Goodrich Tire and Rubber Co.

"I had been feeling all run-down for a year or more and my whole system seemed to be getting out of order, as the longer I went the worse I got," he continued. "My appetite was so poor I hadn't eaten a bite for breakfast in a year, and although my wife would fix a small lunch for me to carry with me to work, I always brought all or most of it back home in the afternoon. Even when I did manage to eat a little something it caused me to bloat up with gas until I could hardly breathe and I would be in misery for hours I afterwards. I could get but little sleep, and always got up feeling as tired and worn out as when I went to bed. I just had to drag myself around at my work, and it was only by using great will power I managed to stay on the job at all. Finally, I got so bad off that often while at work I would get weak and nervous all of a sudden, become dizzy and just have to stop and rest a while before I could go on again. In fact, I was in such a bad fix I was just about ready to give up and go to bed when Tanlac came to my rescue."

"The boys at the plant saw the condition I was in, and as several of them had taken Tanlac with remarkable results, they advised me to try it. Well, sir, I commenced getting better right away, and now my improvement has been so great that all the boys in my department at the Goodrich plant who felt like they needed a little building up have taken Tanlac, and it has helped them so much, too, that about all we talk about outside of our work, is Tanlac. Why, I feel at least twenty years younger, and am in such good shape it is hard for me to realize I ever had anything wrong with me. I have regained my strength so that my work is actually a pleasure, and have such a good appetite my wife jokingly says I am about to eat us out of house and home. I think Tanlac is the grandest medicine in the world and I am always recommending it to others."

Tanlac is sold in Xenia by Sayre & Hemphill, in Yellow Springs by A. Finley; Powersville, N. K. Bowreheister; Fairfield, Paul P. Young; Osborn, C. T. Logsdon; New Burlington, W. C. Smith.

WITHOUT AN EQUAL STATES INSPECTOR

Tanlac Built Him Up So Wonderfully His Friends Are Now Taking It.

"Although I have only taken four bottles of Tanlac, it has restored me to perfect health, and I have gained ten pounds in weight," said Floyd E. Whitman, 790 Sawyer St., Akron, Ohio, inspector of the steam heating system for the Goodrich Tire and Rubber Co.

"I had been feeling all run-down for a year or more and my whole system seemed to be getting out of order, as the longer I went the worse I got," he continued. "My appetite was so poor I hadn't eaten a bite for breakfast in a year, and although my wife would fix a small lunch for me to carry with me to work, I always brought all or most of it back home in the afternoon. Even when I did manage to eat a little something it caused me to bloat up with gas until I could hardly breathe and I would be in misery for hours I afterwards. I could get but little sleep, and always got up feeling as tired and worn out as when I went to bed. I just had to drag myself around at my work, and it was only by using great will power I managed to stay on the job at all. Finally, I got so bad off that often while at work I would get weak and nervous all of a sudden, become staggering and just have to stop and rest a while before I could go on again. In fact, I was in such a bad fix I was just about ready to give up and go to bed when Tanlac came to my rescue.

"The boys at the plant saw the condition I was in, and as several of them had taken Tanlac with remarkable results, they advised me to try it. Well, sir, I commenced getting better right away, and now my improvement has been so great that all the boys in my department at the Goodrich plant who felt like they needed a little building up have taken Tanlac, and it has helped them so much, too, that about all we talk about outside of our work is Tanlac. Why, I feel at least twenty years younger, and am in such good shape it is hard for me to realize I ever had anything wrong with me. I have regained my strength so that my work is actually a pleasure, and have such a good appetite my wife jokingly says I am about to eat us out of house and home. I think Tanlac is the grandest medicine in the world and I am always recommending it to others."

"Tanlac is sold in Xenia by Sayre & Hemphill, in Yellow Springs by A. Finley; Bowersville, N. K. Bowrehester; Fairfield, Paul P. Young; Osborn, C. T. Logsdon; New Burlington, W. C. Smith.

The Itching and Sting of Blazing, Fiery Eczema

Seems Like the Skin Is on Fire.

There is a harassing discomfort caused by Eczema that becomes a torture. The itching is almost unbearable, and the skin seems on fire with the burning irritation. A cure from local applications of salves and ointments is impossible, because such treatment can only allay the pain temporarily. The disease can only be reached by going deep down to its source.

The source of Eczema is in the blood, the disease being caused by an infection which breaks out through the skin. That is why the most satisfactory treatment for all so-called skin diseases is S. S. S., for this remedy so thoroughly cleanses the blood that no impurities can remain. Get a bottle today, and you will see results from the right treatment. Write for advice. ## JOHNSON AND BORAH'S DETERMINATION TO RULE OR RUIN SHOULD BE SAT DOWN ON HARD.

Did you notice in the Thursday morning dispatches from the Chicago Convention that Charles Warren, National Committeeman from Michigan, and Senator Frederick Hale, of Maine, called at the headquarters of the subcommittee and asked for a conference with Senator Watson.

They informed him bluntly that they had canvassed the delegations an that undoubtedly the majority sentiment of the convention favored a declaration for the formation of a League of Nations with proper reservations.

They declared that in danger of a split emphatically the convention could not afford to evade this sentiment, and that a pro-league plank must be adopted. This was contrary to the plan of Senator Watson and others, who had been attempting to bring about a compromise.

The opinion at last seemed to dawn on a number of Republican leaders that perhaps they were about to compromise too far and needlessly with the Johnson-Borah outfit.

Senator Watson claimed that the information brought by Warren and Senator Hale was surprising, although he said also that he had received similar word from Senators Frank B. Kellogg and Irvine L. Lenroot, mild reservationists, who have declared since coming to Chicago that a majority of the delegates favored a pro-league plank as long as there was a declaration for proper reservations.

In his speech as chairman of the Convention, Henry Cabot Lodge, (author of the Lodge Reservations to the League of Nations) explained at great length the objections to Section 10 of the League, and how faithfully the Republicans of the Senate had tried to pass the Treaty and League with the Lodge Reservations, but were always defeated by President Wilson's refusal to allow his stand-pat followers to accept the compromise. Mr. Lodge said: "Twice we offered to the President and his most faithful supporters an opportunity to ratify the treaty with reservations. Twice his followers, obedient to his orders, rejected the treaty with the reservations I have outlined. There the story ends. We have stopped Mr. Wilson's treaty and the question goes to the public. In 1916 Mr. Wilson won on the cry that he had 'kept us out of war.' He now demands the approval of the American voters for his party and his administration on the ground that he has kept us out of peace."

The Chicago convention resolutions on this question should say that the Republican party is in favor of the Treaty and League of Nations, with the Lodge Reservations. The Johnson-Borah contention for a vicious denunciation of the Treaty and League is a misrepresentation of the attitude of the party. Their aggressive determination to rule or ruin the convention should be sat down on hard.

"WE THE PEOPLE" ARE LOANING THE RAILROADS VAST SUMS OF MONEY.

Immediate appropriation of $125,000,000 of government funds for the use of the railroads to purchase new rolling stock was announced on Monday by the Interstate Commerce Commission. The money will be advanced out of the $300,000,000 revolving fund provided in the transportation act.

Appropriations for additions and betterments to promote the movement of cars were fixed at $73,000,000; to meet maturing obligations, $50,000,000; to short-line carriers, $2,000,000.

Of the total to be advanced for rolling stock, $75,000,000 will be set aside for the purchase of freight cars, with preference given to 20,000 refrigerator cars for fruit crops, and $50,000,000 will be set aside for the acquisition of locomotives, with preference given to freight and switching locomotives.

In each case first allotments will be made to roads making the greatest advances to meet the government loans. In the case of the advance for locomotives applicants will be required to contribute at least 50 per cent of the costs, but before any passenger locomotives are purchased attention will be given to the need for freight and switching engines by roads which are unable to make 50 per cent advances.

THE DOCTOR.

The doctor felt my throbbing wrist, whose pulsebeats seemed to lode; he said, "You have the hives, I wist, and I'll prescribe some dope." And when I got the doctor's bill, a painful hour was mine; a sort of raw and clammy chill went sliding down my spine. I said, "It is a sine and shame, to tax me such a sum, and I shall climb that sawbones' frame, when next I see him come." And when I thought of all the toil it took to make him wise; he studied by the midnight oil until he sprained his eyes. He had to paw old misfit bones, and listen, by the day, to lecturers, whose musty tones would make a corpse turn gray. He had to physic pauper gents to get his hand in right, and if they paid him fifty cents he wept from pure delight. He had to travel muddy roads in midnight rain and storm, while I was writing nutty odes, serene and fat and warm. He often lacked a goose to eat when came his Christmas day; and if he's now in Easy Street, he surely fought his way. "He's charging for the skill," I said, "that long hard years have brought, and so I will not punch his head, or spoil his dome of thought."

"WE THE PEOPLE" ARE LOANING THE RAILROADS VAST SUMS OF MONEY.

Immediate appropriation of $125,000,000 of government funds for the use of the railroads to purchase new rolling stock was announced on Monday by the Interstate Commerce Commission. The money will be advanced out of the $300,000,000 revolving fund provided in the transportation act.

Appropriations for additions and betterments to promote the movement of cars were fixed at $73,000,000; to meet maturing obligations, $50,000,000; to short-line carriers, $2,000,000.

Of the total to be advanced for rolling stock, $75,000,000 will be set aside for the purchase of freight cars, with preference given to 20,000 refrigerator cars for fruit crops, and $50,000,000 will be set aside for the acquisition of locomotives, with preference given to freight and switching locomotives.

In each case first allotments will be made to roads making the greatest advances to meet the government loans. In the case of the advance for locomotives applicants will be required to contribute at least 50 per cent of the costs, but before any passenger locomotives are purchased attention will be given to the need for freight and switching engines by roads which are unable to make 50 per cent advances.

"I am sorry I did not hear of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy a few years ago, as it would have saved me several hundred dollars. Five years I suffered from indigestion and severe bloating. ### THE DOCTOR.

The doctor felt my throbbing wrist, whose pulsebeats seemed to lope; he said, "You have the hives, I wist, and I'll prescribe some dope." And when I got the doctor's bill, a painful hour was mine; a sort of raw and clammy chill went sliding down my spine. I said, "It is a sine and shame, to tax me such a sum, and I shall climb that sawbones' frame, when next I see him come." And when I thought of all the toil it took to make him wise; he studied by the midnight oil until he sprained his eyes. He had to paw old misfit bones, and listen, by the day, to lecturers, whose musty tones would make a corpse turn gray. He had to physic pauper gents to get his hand in right, and if they paid him fifty cents he wept from pure delight. He had to travel muddy roads in midnight rain and storm, while I was writing nutty odes, serene and fat and warm. He often lacked a goose to eat when came his Christmas day; and if he's now in Easy Street, he surely fought his way. "He's charging for the skill," I said, "that long hard years have brought, and so I will not punch his head, or spoil his dome of thought."

You Should Buy a Peerless Armco Iron Furnace WHY?

Because it delivers the goods. A 24 inch Peerless pipeless heated the Xenia Willard Storage Battery Station last winter with only 8 tons of coal. Anyone that knows anything about a storage battery station knows that the doors are opened a great many times a day to permit cars to go in and out. A 33 inch Peerless Pipe Furnace heats the St. John's A. M. E. Church. Just ask any of the church members about it. Two 30 inch Pipe Furnaces heated the First Baptist Church of Wilmington, Ohio, last winter. The first winter that they had ever had satisfactory heat. We have the right furnace for your building. Any of the following can give you information about Peerless furnaces, they are using them: R. D. Adair, A. S. Ankeney, J. The Misses King, E. F. ## WELL DEVELOPED ARMS

As I have frequently said in discussing this same subject, the most effective way to develop the arms is to exercise them. For today I want to give a simple little exercise for making the arms rounded, firm in muscle, and sturdy and youthful in appearance. I would advise every woman who wants to improve her arms to try this for it is quite as effective at 50 as it is at 15.

Now the only amusing way to take exercises is either to take them in a class with a lot of enthusiastic fellow gymnasts, or to take them at home alone where you can watch the effect of the exercise as you do it. So when you try stand before your mirror in some sort of negligee, probably with a camisole on and without corsets. Then exercise as follows:

Stand with the arms out on each side on a level with the shoulders. Tighten up the muscles of the arms as though you were pulling against a great deal of resistance. You will see the muscles in the upper part of the arm become visible as tight little knots, unless your arms are so underdeveloped that you have no muscles at all. Double the hands into fists and pull the arms back until the hands touch the shoulders. Repeat from 12 to 20 times. If you are in bad need of exercise, your arms will probably be sore all the next day, but this is only an added reason why you should repeat this exercise the following days and all the other days until the arms are properly developed.

A variation of this is to hold the arms out in front of you, doubling up the fists as before; then, still pulling against an imaginary weight, draw the arms back and forth as though you were rowing a boat.

great deal of success depends upon personal recommendation.

Blue Eyes—Have your doctor remove the mole on the face. Don't touch it yourself.

"Do married women and unmarried women carry the same size visiting cards?" asked Marian.

"Yes, except in the case of a debutante, then they are smaller, said her mother.

Is It Yours

Eli Thayer was the man who settled in Kansas so many Northerners that the state came into the Union as anti-slavery and materially strengthened the Northern cause during the Civil War. A prominent man said, "I would rather have the credit of Thayer's work than be the hero of the battle of New Orleans."

Thayer was born in Massachusetts and was a direct descendant of the famous John Alden of Puritan times. For some years he was a teacher. Then he was elected to the state legislature and became interested in emigration. He founded the New England Emigrant Aid Company—a regular business organization having a large capital, which advertised the advantages of living in Kansas in all the big newspapers. They conducted emigration on what was then a de luxe scale to attract people to the West. The object was to form societies in the east of people who would emigrate in a body.

On the site of the proposed towns, hotels were already built and saw mills erected so the people could have temporary housing and material from which to build their permanent homes. Thayer attained his object, which was to make Kansas a free state. He tried to convert Virginia in the same way, by flooding it with Northern settlers, but the Civil War broke out before he had established more than one town. Thayer was also an inventor, a lecturer, and a writer.

MONEY IS USELESS

When You Have Bad Health.

The pleasures of life are denied those who suffer with rheumatism, scrofula, erysipelas, eruptive skin and other diseases caused by an impure state of the blood. Even though you seek enjoyment in the many ways possible to your station in life, your aches and pains will not permit you the measure of happiness to which you are entitled. You are necessarily miserable and discouraged, and when your morbid condition becomes known your friends and acquaintances will sometimes avoid you.

Your success, your happiness, all depend on what you get out of life. Your health and strength therefore depend on pure rich blood.

As a purifier of the blood, modern medicine offers no remedy of greater value than Prescription C-2223. This treatment stands above all other remedies as an alternative of great power. It changes diseased conditions into conditions of health.

If you are suffering from any troubles caused by impure blood, or if you fear that the poisons have never been eliminated from your blood you should begin now and take Prescription C-2223.

To stimulate the liver and regulate the bowels a mild cathartic is necessary. There is nothing better than 2223 Liver Pills.

All druggists sell and guarantee Prescription C-2223 at $1.50 a bottle, but if it happens that you cannot find it, send $1.75 for a large bottle and a box of pills. Write Dept. 122 for sample of pills, literature and a 1920 Almanac.

On The Spur of The Moment

SUM-M-M-MER!

I care not how
The birds sing
Nor how the roosters crow.
I know it isn't Summer when I still see
Flakes of snow.

The various sounds
That Nature makes,
Her cheerful
Happy din,
Cannot drown out
The sound of coal
They're dumping
In my bin.

My friend went out
In summer suit.
They brought him back
At dark.
All still and cold.
And much demised.
They'd found him in
The park.

So stick, my friends,
Unto the shirt
That is of flannel red.
To be a boob is Better than
To be Beau Brummel—Dead.

A New York man says Boston is just as wicked as New York. Gosh! What an interesting place Boston must be if that is as wicked as it is.

We are of a trusting disposition, but we will never have any great confidence in any open-face pie in a quick-lunch room.

TIPS TO REFORMERS.

Open-work Stockings—Shocking, always. That reformers should be forced to observe them upon our public streets is a crime. They shall be legislated out of existence—the stockings, not the reformers.

Tomato Catsup—The habit of eating tomato catsup is a national curse. It ferments in the stomach and causes cataputis, which is rapidly devouring us.

The Dickey—The dickey, or false shirt front, has long been a delusion and a snare. The number of people who have been deluded into the idea that waiters, actors and others have been fully dressed when they have not been would stagger the imagination.

We have recently spent several delightful hours reading "Something Else Again," a compilation of verse, prose, sketches and columnistic comment by our esteemed contemporary and friend, Franklin P. Adams, the widely-read "F. P. A." of the New York "Tribune."

"It is snappy," as Chic Sale would say—"clean but snappy" and clever to the nth degree. Perhaps the piece of verse that we fell for the hardest, because it struck home, was the following:

"Although I hate
A profiteer
With unabated
Loathing;
Though I detest
The price they smear
On pants and vest
And clothing.

California is said to be Mr. Hoover's home state, and it acted just like a home state, too, didn't it?

Nobody is indifferent to the fate of Carranza but the Mexican people.

A Chicago judge says: "It is impossible for a man to steal from his wife."

The Third Baptist church over the remains of the late Mrs. Andrew Burgess. The casket rested under an em-bankment of flowers, mute testimonials of her many friends of the high esteem in which she was held.

Services were in charge of her pastor, Rev. A. M. Howe, who used as a scripture text 1st Cor. 15:48. He spoke very tenderly of her as a christian in the church, home and the community, as well as comforting the hearers with the hope of and in the resurrection.

The sketch and history of her life was given by Rev. W. C. Allen, Brother Samuel Blade, a life long friend of the family, offered prayer.

Four beautiful selections were rendered by the choir, (favorites of the deceased, Mrs. Elizabeth Simms sang, "We are Passing Down the Valley," composed by Filmore, as a solo. A poem, dedicated to the sorrowing was read by Miss Elmira Thompson, after which the Order, Unity Court of Calanthe, No. 12, of which the deceased was a member, took charge under the ritual of the order, which was impressive. The pallbearers were, W. C. Harris, James Ritchi, Wade Allen, Jacob Humphreys, Henry W. Gales and Spencer White, all members of the official board of the church. The remains were laid to rest in Cherry Grove cemetery. Thus, a quiet, but peaceful life after many years of suffering and affliction, was brought to a close.

Miss Sarah Porter, East Main St., is very ill with no hope for her recovery.

The commencement exercises of East High will begin promptly at 8 o'clock Friday evening.

Miss Mable James, of Springfield, is in the city the guest of Mrs. Ethel Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Suange, of Pittsburgh, Pa., were here to attend the funeral of Rev. P. E. Mills, of this city.

WHOLE LIFE WAS MISERABLE FROM STOMACH TROUBLE

Prominent citizen suffered tortures from indigestion, dyspepsia, gas in stomach, constipation, nervousness and dizzy spells. Drego gave prompt relief.

"I know what it is to suffer the tortures of indigestion, dyspepsia, and gastritis, and the other ailments which go along with them, and I also know what it means to get rid of them," said Mr. John Mellott, of 405 Centre St., Findlay, O.

"After each meal I'd fill up with gas; my stomach burned like fire, and I had griping pains. My bowels were badly constipated; I suffered from dizziness and vertigo and became nervous, so that I slept poorly and would rise in the morning feeling tired out."

"I had taken much medicine, designed to cure such troubles, but I never got more than temporary relief. I think the reason Drego has done me so much good is because it acted on the rest of the trouble. It got my bowels moving regularly; cleared my liver off, and strengthened my stomach. I've taken three bottles of Drego and my troubles have been entirely relieved. I sleep sound; have a good appetite, and feel good all over."

Drego is made from the juices of twelve different herbs, roots, barks and leaves, which act directly on the stomach, liver, kidneys, bladder and the blood, and tends to relieve constipation, headaches, rheumatism, catarrh, biliousness, dizzy spells, heart fluttering, gas on the stomach and other troubles.

Drego is now sold by all progressive druggists and is being especially introduced here by Sohn's Drug Store.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Attractiveness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.
